

Edward Fisher

Experience

Assistant Psychologist

The Private Therapy Clinic, United Kingdom
2021, November – 2022, July

- Received extensive training in Psychodynamic and CBT approaches for basic to more complex mental health disorders.
- Presented with the opportunity to become a therapist in training and receive clients treating (not limited to); depression, anxiety, self-esteem, panic disorder, persecutory delusions.
- Shadowing top Harley Street clinician methods, use of therapeutic practice and diagnostic tools.
- Communicating with clients from basic actioning of emails to screening complex clients (DID, BPD, schizophrenia/psychosis) and other mental health disorders.
- Participated in administrative duties in the therapist team and communicating with practitioners of all different qualification and expertise.

Assistant Psychiatrist

The Private Therapy Clinic, United Kingdom
2022, July – 2023 May

- Duties included screening patients and collecting detailed psychiatric history of patients before recommending appropriate practitioners
- Working with pharmacies to ensure patients receive medication on time and collecting medication response forms to inform practitioners of patient's feedback to medications.
- Scheduled clients for assessments and follow up consultations to continue titration of medication

Mental Health Learning Support Assistant

Wishmore Cross Academy, United Kingdom
2021, December - 2022, July

- Encouraging personal care and independence for children with Special Educational Needs, mental illnesses, and disabilities; including autism, ADHD and speech, language and communication needs.
- Facilitating sensory and art play
- Supervising activities, such as crafts, cooking, reading and outdoor/physical pursuits.
- Planning, observing and keeping records that inform parents and carers about their child's day.
- Providing emotional support and pastoral care for students that exhibited challenging behaviour.

QBCheck Lead

The Private Therapy Clinic, United Kingdom
November 2022 – Present

- Trained by the QBTech team to administer the QBCheck a cutting edge ADHD tool in aiding a diagnosis by suggesting a likelihood of ADHD being present

Education

Bachelor of Psychology

University of Exeter, United Kingdom
2018-2021

- Specialised (in 3rd year) in Clinical Psychology, Brain Plasticity and Language learning and cultural psychology
- Developed strong research and analytical skills – showed massive improvements and strong academic results in lab reports
- Acquired skills to compile and interpret statistical data. (e.g. SPSS) and managed to communicate it in an academic and professional manner
- Demonstrated excellent communication and teamworking skills by working in a team of 7 people at all levels to design an experiment and gather data

A levels

Woking College, United Kingdom
2016-2018

- Forensic Science, 2 x Distinction*
- Psychology, A
- Geography, B

Volunteer Work

Teaching Assistant

Wey House School, United Kingdom
Work Experience Week. July 2017

- Worked at a school for children with extreme special needs of all kinds, learning disabilities and learning differences
- Based in a classroom environment – observing support given and different behavioral patterns throughout the day communicating and relaying information to occupational therapists.
- Gained resilience to work in a stressful environment with training on how to defuse hostile situations and reregulate emotions of children who hit crisis.